PARISH LADIES' SOCIETY PRESENTS ANNUAL DINNER

LAC LA BICHE.—The first annual dinner of the St. Catherine's Parish Ladies' Society was held in St. Catherine's hospital, Lac la Biche, on Thursday evening, Nov. 30.

Forty of the ladies sat down to dinner which proved to be a very gala affair. The dinner was catered to by the ladies and Sisters of the hospital. The dining hall was appropriately decorated and after the repast musical numbers were sung, including the official song of the society, composed by Mrs. J. Bouvier who is president of the group, entitled "Ah, c'est les Dames de Ste-Catherine."

A short business meeting was also incorporated into the event and a very healthy financial report was read by Mrs. M. Maccago, the secretary. The new Mother Provincial of the Daughters of Jesus who conduct the hospital and many other institutions and schools in the province, was present for a few minutes. The new Provincial has recently arrived from England.

Among the highlights of the evening were two addresses and presentations, made to Rev. J. E. McCrane, the parish priest, and to Rev. Sister Josephine, superior of St. Catherine's hospital.

After the address was read to Fr. McCrane he was presented with a de luxe set of the "Breviarium Romanum," which is the official prayer book of the priests, consisting of four volumns. Fr. McCrane in thanking the ladies for this magnificent gift also stressed the wonderful cooperation that he had received from the Ladies of Catherines Society in all of the parish activities.

The address was then read to the Sisters, who not only conduct our fine hospital, but also teach in the school and are in charge of the sacristy work at the church. In appreciation of this work a marble electric clock was presented to the Sister Superior.

The whole affair was an outstanding success and gatherings of a similar nature are planned for the future.

LAC LA BICHE—In St. Catherine's Church on Nov. 22, at 10:00 a.m., Miss Theresa Bouvier became the bride of William Shack of Edmonton. Rev. Fr. McGrane officiated. The bride wore a floor-length white satin gown with long veil, carrying a bouquet of red roses. Miss Louise L'Huereux, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid in a blue floor-length gown with shoulder-length veil. Jean Bouvier, brother of the bride, was best man. Breakfast was served at the bride's home.

A dance was held in the Memorial all, with Mr. J. Mitchell conducting the wedding march, where a very pleasant evening was spent.

The newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton.

SPRUCE VALLEY—A medium sized crowd attended show "The Lost Tribe," at the hall on Nov. 23. Those who attended enjoyed it.

Now the shows will be shown every four weeks. On Dec. 21, a show will be held called "Mexican Hayride," with Abott and Costello. Added features will be shown, called "Play and Plenty" and "Rhythm Master." Make it a date to come.

F.U.A. Director Organizes Club

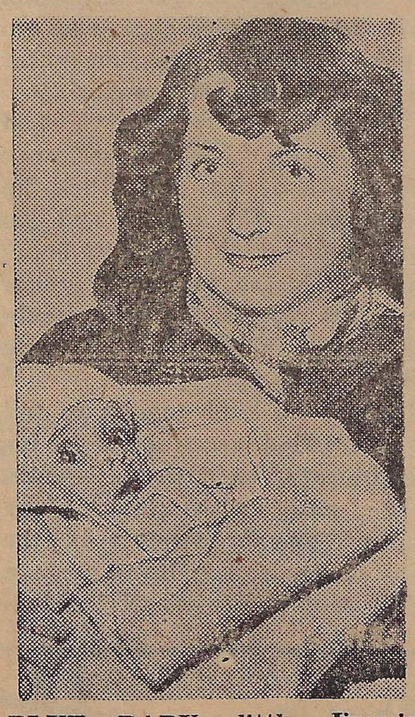

BLUE JAY. — Earl Wright, director of the FUA, met with good response from Blue Jay high school students on his trip here to organize a junior branch of the organization. The response was also enthusiastic for the Girls Sewing Club, organized by Miss Andreason, district home economist of Westlock.

Walter J. Ilnicki was honored by a farewell party by his many friends here before leaving to attend agricultural school at Olds, Alta. The former grade 12 student of Grassland was active in school and community life and will be missed. He was president of the Junior Branch Farmers Union of Alberta and the Blue Jay Community Centre.

Miss Olga Andrusiak from Newbrook, Alta., is now employed by Mr. Paul Karpetz.

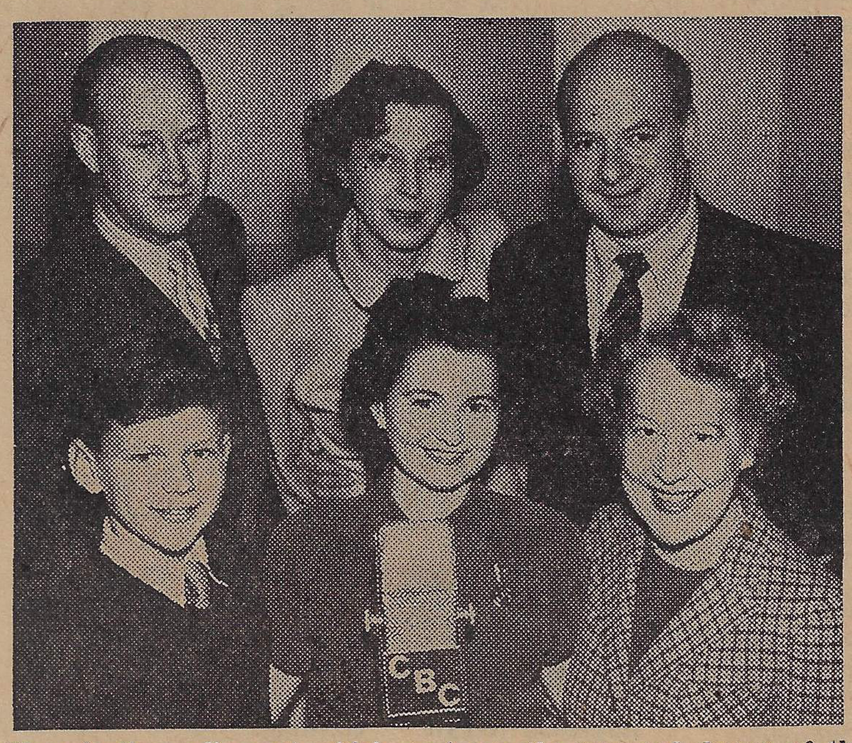

Miss Pricinia Klimiuk, graduate of Harvel Beauty Salon, Edmonton, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Klimiuk.

Cheques cashed against individual accounts by Canadians in the month of July amounted to $8,101 million.

BLUE BABY, little Jimmie Saunders, of Calgary, is seen with Wanda Coady, air hostess. He was flown to Toronto for an operation to correct his heart condition. Expenses are being paid by anonymous Calgary businessmen.

Canadian Family on the Air

Here is the radio cast which portrays the ups and downs of the Robinsons, the family whose story is heard every Tuesday at 9:30 over Edmonton CFRN. In the back row are Jack Mayther (left) who plays John Robinson; Roxana Bond, his wife Helen; and Douglas Master, who plays brother Timothy. In front are Bill Davis, heard as Mickey Robinson; Maxine Miller as John's daughter Kathy; and Jane Mallet, who plays the role of John's mother.

LAC LA BICHE NEWS NOTES

Mrs. J. Clark from Boyle visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curry.

Mr. John Watson moved to Edmonton with his daughter Mary, who is employed in the meteorological office there. Miss Mary bought a house overlooking the golf course out on the Highlands for their home. Mr. Watson is one of the old timers, coming here in 1915. He was station agent for a number of years. After he retired from the NAR he was secretary of the village. He also took an active part in the United Church.

Miss Rose Mancell and Miss Elsa Bray, both from England, are now stationed at the Anglican Mission at Wandering River.

The pipes that run 700 feet out in the lake for the NAR to take the water to the tank are leaking. The men have located three places where it was leaking and it is hoped it is all.

Due to weather conditions, one farmer has 75 acres of grain in the stooks. There is so much snow if it is threshed it heats. He brings it in as it is fed.

The report at the meteorological office for Nov. 1949 low was 18.01 and high was 67 above with one and a half inches of snow. In Nov. 1950 the high was 39.08, low 26 below with 18 inches of snow.

The town is flooding the skating rink, then the Students Union will take care of it for the winter.

Only 15 more shopping days before Christmas.

Do your Christmas shopping early.

Mr. Mike Maccago has redecorated his theatre and installed a candy counter and an electric pop corn popper, which pops corn nicely.

The Students Union is putting on a play at Christmas.

Mr. W. Dumas has reopened a butcher shop, selling all kinds of fresh meats, butchered daily by a first class butcher. Mr. Dumas is an old timer here, coming in July 1915 from Henningville, B.C. He opened a butchershop in 1915 in what was known as the old town. It was located west of Mr. L. Richards Dairy where it is today. At that time where the town is was all bush, just a trail went up to the Hudson's Bay Post located where Mr. Edras Cadieux lives now.

Mary Dietel Weds Bernard Romaniuk In Lac la Biche

LAC LA BICHE. — A pretty wedding was held here recently when Mary Diatel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Diatel of Grassland, became the bride of Bernard Romaniuk of Lac la Biche.

Ceremony was performed by Father McGrane.

Bride wore a floor length veil and a dress of white satin with lace at the yoke. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

The groom wore a blue suit.

Bridesmaids were Miss Nadie Diatel of Edmonton, Miss Anne Romaniuk of Edmonton, and Miss Jenny Diatel of Grassland.

Their floor length gowns were in blue, pink and light green, with matching bouquets.

Best men were Eldred Weeres of Lac la Biche, Felix Hewko of Sarrail, and Raymond Johnson of Grassland.

Wedding pictures were taken in Boyle Studios.

Reception was held at the home of the bride's father in Grassland.

Following this, a dance was held in the Grassland hall.

The newlyweds will make their home in Lac la Biche, where the groom operates Romaniuk's radio store.

Opens Butcher Shop In Lac la Biche

LAC LA BICHE—W. Dumas, old-time butcher of this district, has re-opened a butcher shop here.

Mr. Dumas came here in 1914 from Henningville, B.C., and opened a butcher shop in the old town, west of where the L. Richard Dairy is now located. At that time, there was only a trail leading to the Hundson's Bay post where Edras Cadiux now lives.

Imperial Bank's Annual Report Stresses Prosperity

The 76th annual meeting of the Imperial Bank of Canada was held at the head office in Toronto. Imperial Bank is the first bank to hold its annual meeting in 1950 and the financial statement already published shows record deposits, loans and profits, which are commented on by Mr. L. S. Mackersy, the general manager of Imperial Bank of Canada, later in this report of the proceedings.

Mr. I. K. Johnston, addressing the shareholders, stressed the fact that the prospects for the prosperity of Canada are great, but that courage to face the future is required. Mr. Johnston, commenting on significant developments during the past year, said the 12 months which have passed have witnessed some marked shifts and significant new developments. They have also been remarkable for the continuation of the high levels of employment and business activity which have characterized the whole period since 1945.

Mr. Johnston, touching on the international situation, spoke of the response of the United States and of the United Nations to the challenge in Korea as being immediate and powerful, and the initial shock of this unexpected crisis galvanized the United States into prompt action.

Speaking of the development of oil resources in the west and the iron ore resources in the east, Mr. Johnston said that the oil production has now risen above 100,000 barrels a day and only over a considerable period of time will the full effects of the use of these resources make themselves felt in the pattern of industry in the west and the east, and generally in the economy of the country as a whole.

Speaking of the future, Mr. Johnston affirmed that Canadians may look forward with sober confidence to the future, although one of the problems is likely to be too much business activity rather than too little. He explained that we have come through the post-war period much more fortunately than any would have been willing to predict in 1945, and he concluded his address with a reminder that consumers must have restraint in purchasing, and courage must be the key-note for 1951.

Mr. L. S. Mackersy, general manager, commenting on the annual statement of Imperial Bank of Canada said that total assets of $526,748,659 and deposits at $477,747,176 are at an all time high. The profits before provision of depreciation and taxes were $2,650,308, representing an increase of $540,233.

Continuing his address, Mr. Mackersy stated that from reports which he had received on business conditions, a high level of business activity can be expected and that it is likely that 1950 will see peak levels established both in production and consumption.

However, Mr. Mackersy stated that farm income will not equal that of last year, as the original prospect of a much better than average wheat crop, unfortunately was not realized.

Mr. Mackersy referred to the development of our natural resources, particularly in Labrador and northeastern Quebec, and concluded his address on an optimistic note and stressed the need for planned immigration.

Honors To Alberta Youth

This week, with our own cartoon, drawn especially for us by Bert Nightingale, young and aspiring Alberta cartoonist, we doff our hats to Ricky Sharpe of Munson and the other 36 junior winners in the spring wheat class.

We are proud of the fact that the top three winners in the list are from areas served by papers published by us. The Starland Reporter serves Munson, home of the champion. Rockyford Review is published for Howard Roppel's home town and the Beiseker Times and Marjorie Leiske have Beiseker in common.

To do honor to all our young friends, here is the complete list of 37 winners, with varieties of wheat shown:

1, Ricky Sharpe, Munson, Marquis; 2, Howard C. Roppel, Rockyford, Marquis; 3, Marjorie Leiske, Beiseker, Marquis; 4, Violet Mohr, Josephburg, Saunders; 5, Phyllis Schuler, Carbon, Thatcher; 6, Arthur Baron, Stony Plain, Saunders; 7, H. Alan Dunsmore, Rockyford, Marquis; 8, Danny McDermid, Drumheller, Marquis; 9, Lloyd Coad, Munson, Marquis; 10, Charles Rhodes, Brant, Saunders; 11, Eugene Luchka, Bon Accord, Saunders; 13, Ronald Stevenson, Delia, Thatcher; 14, Bernard Collin, Warner, Thatcher; 15, Edward Kitz, Warwick, Thatcher; 16, Bruce Hastie, Trochu, Thatcher; 17, Clarence Hennig, Golden Spike, Saunders; 18, Ray Schoeppe, Delia, Thatcher; 19, Henry V. What Do You Think?

From time immemorial, health axioms have circulated throughout Alberta and elsewhere and there are those who swear by them, just as they cherish magic formulas to cure many diseases.

Gradually, however, doctors, scientists and better education, are exploding some of these beliefs, although it would not be safe to state that all of them are without value. Just for fun, let's check up on your own ideas. Do you think:

That a persistent cough develops into tuberculosis; that one gets warts from handling toadfrogs, that eating seed-containing fruit causes appendicitis; that you should not go to sleep after eating a big meal; that light hurts your eyes when you have a cold, or that removing a splinter with a pin will cause blood-poisoning?

Now, before reading any further, check upon your opinions. How many of the things listed above fit in with your own belief

Well, the answer to all of them, according to health authorities, is a vigorous negative!

Christ Is the Answer

Christ is the answer to all our questions in our tormented world—to this generation which has become nearly insane through its frustration and suffering. The Word of God tells us that we shall know the truth, and the truth shall make us free. All truth is found in the Lord Christ.

Christ is the answer for all that is wrong in family life where divorce mills grind and where homes die in big houses. When Christ has His way in the home, lawnessness, born of the absence of authority and discipline, departs.

Christ is the answer to all that is wrong in national affairs where men "loose wild tongues that hold not God in awe"—as men forget that "the wicked shall be turned into hell with all the nations that forget God."

The Hundredth Hour

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

Crucial events in Korea pose the threat of another war. Yet Winston Churchill, one who should know, says war is not by any means inevitable. The following is just a fanciful story of the future. Will anything like it ever really be written?

"Spring came early to Alberta in 1951. I think it was the most welcome spring I'd ever seen. Yet before it was over, plenty of people wished they'd never gone through it.

"Life went along pretty much the same as it always did—except for the cost of living (which seemed to go higher every day), and the gathering clouds of war, threatening to rain down a bedlam of destruction on mankind.

"They finally did.

Raymond Argyle

"I remember the night it all started. Things had been getting worse in Korea, with the Chinese Reds again on the rampage. By the way, did you know that H. G. Wells predicted years ago the Chinese and Americans would end up fighting each other?

"Anyway, things were quiet in the newsroom when our rickety old teletype machine started clacking.

"'FLASH—TOKYO SAYS A-BOMB USED ON CHINA REDS. ANY OTHER REPORTS?'

"Next thing we knew, the darn machine just about went to pieces with the copy rattling off it. They'd done it, alright, and not many people blamed MacArthur, either. They dropped an A-bom smack on a North Korean city loaded with Red troops about to shove off for the south. They say 200,000 Reds were in a railway town with a normal population of 10,000. You can imagine what happened.

"Bedlam followed the first flash that the UN forces had used the atom bomb. But I guess our newsroom wasn't the only disorderly spot on the North American continent.

"They dropped it at 10:00 p.m., Tuesday, our time.

"During the next 24 hours the prime minister declared a state of emergency throughout the country. Civil defence plans came out of pigeon-holes, and were put into action in surprising rapidity.

"You might say Canada just about turned into a police state. The RCMP, along with the Army, took over control. General travelling was halted. About 5,000 Communists were rounded up, just as a precaution.

Unearthly Quiet

"Then we all settled back, waiting to see what would happen.

"It seemed as if an awful, unearthly quiet settled over the world. The battlefields were silent. The West stood tense, waiting to see what Russia's reaction would be.

"After all, China had launched an undeclared war on the United Nations. Korea was merely the battleground. Would Russia support Chinese Communist aggression to the very end?

"Friday dawned bright and beautiful. Then, 58 hours after MacArthur used the A-bomb, Russian planes were detected winging their way over the Arctic.

"It was dusk when one swept in over Edmonton.

"The bomb landed on McDougall hill, just below the town's leading hotel. It blew the biggest hole in the ground I've ever seen.

"We were fortunate in that the biggest part of the blast was deflected upwards by the contour of the hill, with a lot of it going out harmlessly across the river valley.

"The 150,000 people of the city were ready for it, of course. The basement was the only place you could escape the blast.

"Just the same, it was the most horrible thing I've ever known. It seemed as if Hell itself had exploded.

"The only other place in Alberta that was bombed was Redwater. They got it when an A-bomb hit the main oil storage plant. The idea was to cut off the oil supply and paralyze Canada's fighting machine.

"Meanwhile, North America's terrific fighting machine had gone into action.

"Russia got it before the night was out.

""By Sunday morning we were wondering if Russia had any more A-bombs.

"A hundred hours after they dropped the bomb in Korea, the Atomic war was over.

"But not World War III. Russia's Atomic war plans were completely destroyed in the Allied counter-attack. And the West wasn't using anymore A-bombs for just about the same reason. But neither were giving up. There was just one prospect . . . a long, tough, horrible fight."

AN Opinion

Dear Sir—It was with much interest and some amusement that I read a letter entitled "Buck vs. God", and signed "Reader", in your November 17 issue. The inference appears to be that God and Tim Buck are two of a kind and any person may take his choice of which he would have. I would suggest tossing a penny and let that decide the matter, heads or tails.

But I don't think that is just what "Reader" has in mind. He seems to have a god complex of some kind and advises us to study the scriptures to get in touch with the gods. Well that is where I get my idea of the gods, but I arrive at a different conclusion.

"Reader" tells us that "if God in his anger should take away the breath of Mr. Tim Buck, he would drop like a dog and his bones would stink within 24 hours and this is the truth." I gather from that statement that God only takes away the breath of those who do not worship him. Would "Reader" be kind enough to tell us where God was when 58 of his worshippers had their breaths taken away when their plane crashed on a mountain in the Alps on their way home from a celebration in His honor? Incidentally, what would "Reader" and his ilk have said if those 58 people had been atheists coming home from an atheistic celebration of some kind?

Now if "Reader" will just stand by his guns we should make quite an interesting discussion of this matter. We will go into the question of "living gods" dead gods, "true scientists," and so forth. But this letter is already long enough.

No News

Dear Sir—I have not seen any news from this place in your Lac La Biche Herald for some time. Probably now we will see the news again in your good paper as they are taking water out of the river to make a skating rink so the news will come from it's upper estuarys again. I hope to see this in your paper.

Dear Sir—Here's a coincidence for you. I have before me two clippings— one from 'Dick Tracy', showing a child buried but still alive under a load of scrap iron; the other a picture of a Philadelphia baby who was rescued from a junk trailer just before it was to be burned. Truth and fiction, hah?

Northern Invaders Lose Battle

Youngest and smallest of the three bears that invaded the sub-Arctic air base at Fort Churchill, Churchill, Manitoba, gave Capt. G. A. York of Vancouver the thrill of a lifetime by charging into the captain's rifle fire. The 500-pound bear and two others roamed around the Fort Churchill camp until a group of hunters took after them in jeeps. Capt. York, shown here with his raw material for a bearskin rug, downed the polar in two shots. One other bear was killed—the third escaped.

McRAE NEWS NOTES

A mistake in a recent issue of McRae news, where the weight of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Henderson's baby should have read four pounds and not ounces. Your news correspondent's experience with babies and that our type-setters is very limited, restricted to estimates of weight, after maturity—on your toes in overcrowded street cars or in the doubling up process of Christmas sleigh rides.

Paul Kuzma was back home for a few days. Paul is working at Redwater oil fields. He has the new truck with him ,and emphatically states he is not making any more short cuts over ten-foot road fills. An accident last fall, when the truck made a four-point landing, without harm to the truck or the driver. The smoke was heavy and thick but not quite thick enough to bear the weight of the truck.

Frank Whitford and family have moved to Briereville. Donald Thompson is moving into his old home at McRae.

Mrs. Rochleau, Tompkins Lake school teacher atended a convention of teachers at Lac La Biche. Too bad the presiding officials do not see fit to give our local papers a report of the important discussions that take place. Taxpayers pay for the time ought to be informed of the proceedings.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whitford were visitors to St. Paul at the home of Mrs. Jim Bell.

Mr. John Darda of Axany Mills, is at McRae sawing lumber. New logs delivered will prolong the cut to the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Nick Katerenchuk, our jovial postmaster, has stocked a full line of groceries, fruits and candy. This makes two stores operating in the district.

The bad weather conditions forced a postponment of the dance advertised for last week. Roads were impassable and a crowd did not appear. Even local people were bluffed out.

George Toma returned from the city, where he hoped to obtain work as plasterer. George has relatives who are contracting in the building trades. Winter weather makes only inside work possible during the cold season.

Stormy Sessions at Meeting Of Alberta Municipal Districts

Stormy sessions marked last week's annual convention of the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts as 300 delegates from all parts of the province met in Calgary.

Charles P. Hayes of Strome, was elected president of the Association, succeeding J. M. Wheatley of Chancellor. A. B. Haarstad of Bentley, was named vice-president.

C. E. Gerhart, minister of municipal affairs, was the main government representative at the gathering.

He was roundly blasted by delegates over the government's controversial County Act, slated to become law next year.

Only one district, Vulcan, has applied for the establishment of a County, which would amalgamate Municipal Districts and School Divisions.

Mr. Gerhart said there was no compulsion about the transition to the county system. He called the larger county unit 'capably covered by one school superintendent, today's ideal."

Government spokesmen have described the act as designed particularly to solve problems of municipalities where local governments had gotten into difficulties.

Alleged high prices of gasoline and fuel oil in Alberta were also attacked by delegates to the convention.

Jonathan Wheatley of Chancellor, president of the association, told the meeting "Alberta has been blessed with an abundance of oil but gasoline consumers in Saskatchewan and Manitoba get a reduction."

"It's high time we users of gas and oil got a little relief from the high prices we are paying for these goods." he said.

Among resolutions passed unanimously was one urging provincial government control of rural electric power.

J. E. Brownlee, K.C., gave advice to delegates on the Municipal District Act and told councillors they should pay equal attention to their responsible positions as they would to their own affairs.

He also emphasized the importance of surface water and drainage problems which effect every farmer.

The convention was addressed by Lieut.-Gov. Hon. J. J. Bowlen and Mayor Don McKay of Calgary.

AMA RAPS OIL ROADS

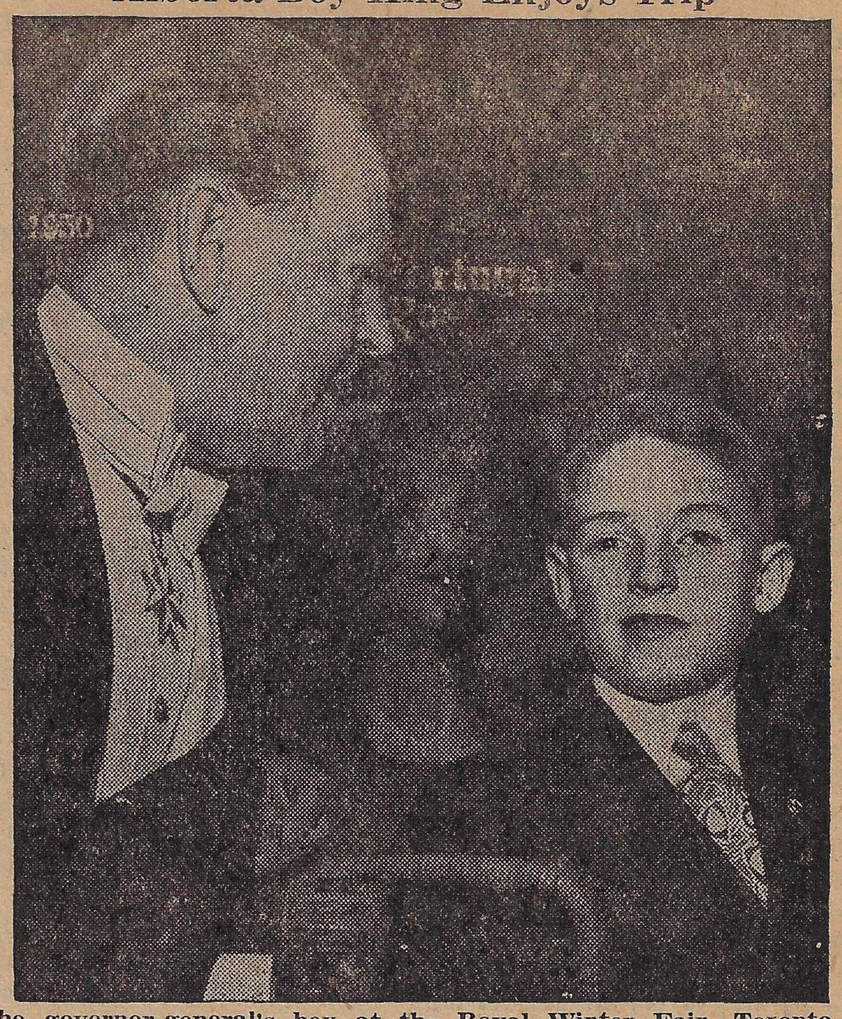

Condition of roads leading into Redwater oil field was rapped at the recent annual meeting of the Alberta Motor Association, Edmonton Branch.

Meeting heard complaints that heavy traffic between Edmonton and Redwater via the St. Paul highway had caused severe strain on road conditions.

A resolution, which urged hard surfacing of the road, was referred to the incoming board of directors.

U. S. television stations made 399 broadcasts of National Film Board films during 1949-50.

Alberta Boy King Enjoys Trip

The governor-general's box at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, was a fitting place for his royal highness, the King of Wheat, Ricky Sharpe of Munson, Alta. So Ricky viewed the proceedings of the fair as guest of Viscount Alexander. He is now on his way home.

May Use Deadly Poison Against Coyote Menace

Government officials are exploring plans for using the deadly "ten eighty" poison in fighting the coyote menace in Alberta.

One official said the government is considering sending to Montana for a man who is well trained in the use of the 1080 poison for which there is no antidote. Such a man would train men in the use of the poison in Alberta. It is stated that the poison can only be handled by men equipped with rubber suits and gloves, and it is placed in the carcasses of dead animals in coyote areas.

A very small amount of the poison which has no taste or smell will kill a coyote or other animal. When an animal is killed by the poison it is necessary to dig up the ground on which the carcass was resting.

The LIGHTER SIDE

Easy Winner

Needing a new secretary, the firm's manager decided to have applicants judged by a psychologist. Three girls were interviewed together.

"What do two and two make?"

"Four," one answered promptly.

To the same question the second girl replied: "It might be 21."

The third girl answered: "It might be 22 and it might be four."

When the girls had left the room, the psychologist turned triumphantly to the manager.

"There," he said: "that's what psychology does. The first girl said the obvious thing. The second smelled a rat. The third was going to have it both ways. Now, which girl will you have?"

The manager did not hesitate. "I'll have the blond with the blue eyes," he said.

Home Supply Short

It was World War II. A young soldier who has escaped over the frontier into Switerland from a prisoner-of-war camp wrote to his father:

"Hope to return home soon, so kill the fatted calf. Is there anything you would liike me to bring?"

His father wrote back: "Yes —bring fatted calf."

LETTER TO LOUISA

Mother's Objections Mar Young Couple's Love

DEAR LOUISA: About two months ago I was working quite some distance from my home where I met a boy and learned to love him very much.

He also is wild about me and since I am only seventeen my mother made me come home.

This broke him down very much. All his letters and his sister's letters tell me how unhappy he is.

My mother is deadly against him and has tried in all ways to break us up. He knows all this but still says that it will never make any difference between us.

Somehow I feel that he'll soon get fed up and we'll part. On the other hand I keep thinking I'll never be able to face him if we don't part. Can you suggest anything to help me?

MICKEY.

Answer:

Your problem is certainly a difficult one, and as there is nothing that can break up a young love as quick as a mother's objections.

Your mother probably feels she is acting in your best interests, but if you truly love this boy, I would advise you to disregard her objections.

I would add but one note of caution. You are very young, and should be in no hurry about selecting your mate for life.

If this boy really loves you, he will be willing to wait until you're a little older before you both make a definite decision.

Perhaps by then, when your mother sees that you're going ahead (if you do) with your plans in a sensible way, she will drop her objections to your young man.

LOUISA.

AIR FORCE TURNS SCHOOL BUILDER

Royal Canadian Air Force has gone into the school building business. Children of the isolated RCAF station at Goose Bay, Labrador, have been provided with this new $275,000-school. A staff of eight will teach 172 pupils ranging from nursery school to grade 12. Building is one of concrete construction and required two years to complete. All materials had to be brought in by ship or plane.

Stan Dacyk No Longer On North Bus Run

LAC LA BICHE.—If the regular travellers on the Lac la Biche to Edmonton run feel there is something missing on the bus between these two points these days and recognize the lack as Stan Dacyk, the bus driver, they can rest assured that Stan remembers them, too.

On November 29 Stan pulled his last bus out of Lac la Biche for Canadian Coachways, now owned by Sunburst Lines. Now driving between Edmonton and Red Deer via Breton, Stan is making new friends along the whole of that route. But he will not forget the old and has written to this paper to say so. "It was a pleasure to serve all the customers on the line," he says.

Queen Sisters True To Grassland In California

California sunshine so far has failed to make Grassland less green for the Queen sisters, en ruote to Hollywood on a trip sponsored by the Better Homes Exposition. "There is nothing wrong with Grassland," writes Mrs. Ira McKenzie reporting flooded roads, washed out bridges and an earthquake so far on their travels. When last heard from they were in Cloverdale, Calf., having safely passed through Reno, Nevada!

A combined meeting of the FUA, Junior FUA, and Athabasca Agricultural Society was held here Nox. 30 to discuss Bang's Disease and proposal for a TB free area. Speakers were Messrs. Godet, Armfeldt and Earl Wright.

Miss Ann Omelchuk returned last week from Edmonton with a brand new diamond ring. Lucky man? Edward Formaniuk of Edmonton.

Dale Mellott is making good progress with the new power line and hopes soon to be supplying electricity to the hamlet.

The hill over the ravine east of Burke's, flanked by dangerous drops on each side is causing concern by residents of Blue Jay and Green Pine for children riding the school bus. On one occasion it is stated the children had to tramp a track for the bus before it could make the grade. Residents believe the old road should be used.

School Division Costs Rising In Alberta

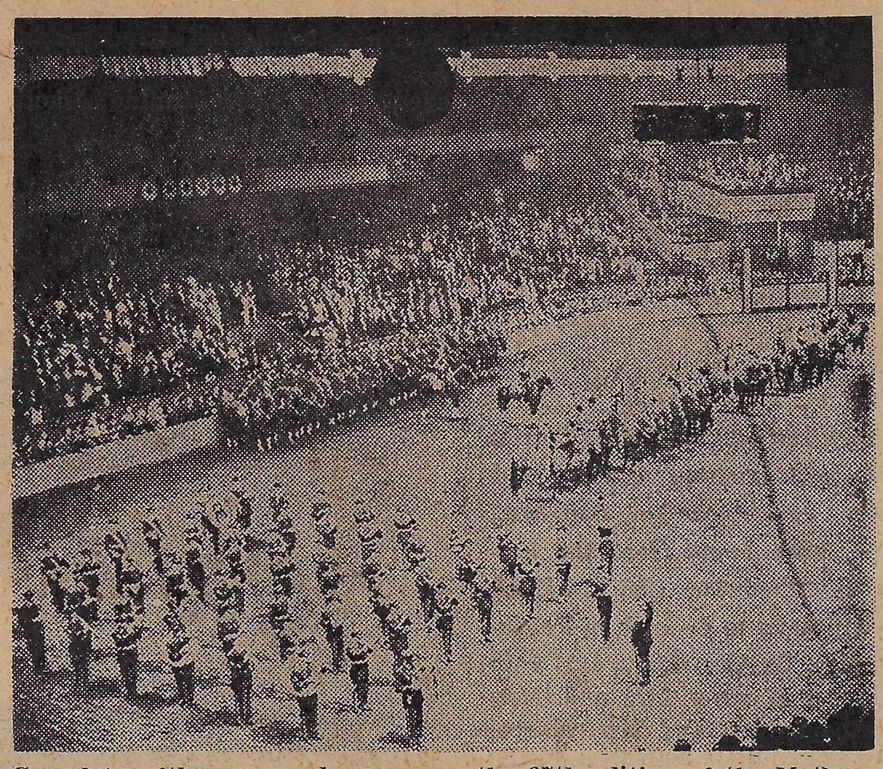

KILLAM.— At the annual meeting of the electors of the Killam School Division, held recently here, Secretary H. T. H. Roberts reported rising costs of education, due to increases in teachers' salaries, van contracts, pupil supplies, and a decrease of about $30,000 in government grants to the division.

He also pointed out that the division has purchased a commercial garage not in the budget, at a cost of $17,000, but this amount is partially offset by the sale of some buildings no longer needed for over $6,000. Mr. Roberts announced that seven divisional and 21 contract buses are now tarnsporting about 600 children from 45 districts to central schools. The purchase of new school desks and typewriters was also mentioned, and the recent debenture by-law to borrow $200,000 for new school buildnigs.

General discussion among the electors resulted in the approval of two resolutions: the first, that no high school students be charged for transportation on school or contract buses, and another, that no more rural schools be closed for centralization without the approval of the electors of the district concerned.

At 4 p.m. the meeting chairman, Mr. S. Lutz, Daysland, announced that the retiring board chairman, J. W. Bateman, of Alliance, was elected by acclamation for a further three-year term. For the seat in the Daysland sub-division the sitting trustee, Mr. W. E. Campbell, will contest the election with Mr. C. E. Berry, both of Daysland. Votes will be cast on January 13 next.

RCMP Again in New York Horse Show

Complete with pomp and ceremony, the 67th edition of the National Horse Show opened its eight-day stand at Madison Square Garden, New Yark, with the R.C.M.P. occupying the centre of the arena. This is a general view of the parade of international teams representing Britain, Canada, Chile, Ireland, Mexico and the United States.

Rural Towns Pose Challenge to Doctors

The rural community is a challenge to public-spirited doctors, declared Dr. S. E. McDowell, of Shawville, in addressing the first annual meeting of the Gatineau Co-operative Medical Service, held recently at Wakefield, Quebec.

"The mental health of a community is probably more important than organic disease, but physicians are loathe to admit that most patients need friendly counsel, not pills or operations," continued Dr. McDowell.

"The doctor," he said, "who is part of his community gets the most out of life and puts the most into his practice. I know no doctor who has starved in the process."

Dr. McDowell outlined the growth of the Shawville Community Hospital from a rented house to a modern 100-bed hospital within a few years. He could see no reason why Gatineau district could not do the same.

SLIDE CAUSES POWER SHORTAGE

A land slide at Calgary Power's Spray Lakes power plant, in the Rockies near Banff, will delay opening of the new 62,000 horse power plant.

Calgary Power requests consumers throughout Alberta to cut down on the use of electricity between 4:30 and 6:30 every evening. Consumers are asked to restrict the use of unneeded lights, electric heaters, irons, toasters and other appliances between those hours.

Every effort is being made to open the new project as soon as possible.

Lumbering Active Near Briereville

BRIEREVILLE—N. W. Whitford reports that they have cut enough logs so far to supply Hayward's Mill in Lac La Biche with lumber; being the first gang to deliver timber for the winter months.

Feed is rather scarce around here. Mr. Gagnon had some hay lying in coil under the snow. So he went out and raked it over. It must have been rather cold, riding the rake.

J. Anderson and family are back home again after being in the city, where Mr. Anderson was confined to hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Anderson are in Edmonton, where Mrs. Anderson is in the hospital. They went up there to visit their daughter and she had to go to the hospital. We do wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Frank Whitford and family of McRae are moving into the district. Welcome to Briereville!
